AUSTRALIAN PREMIUM GRAIN-FED BEEF

AMG works closely with local southern feedlots who have access to genetically superior British bred cattle to help ensure our grain fed beef is exceptional.

Grain feeding in the southern regions, due to the cooler conditions increases the welfare of the cattle throughout its lifetime at the feedlot, helping to maintain the quality of meat.

With a minimum of 150 days grain feeding, the beef is processed at our state-of-the-art and export-registered processing establishment in Dandenong with access to most major markets globally.

Following our stringent AUS-MEAT grading program, AMG prides itself on providing consistency with meat colour and flavour.

Good beef takes time!
